

WILROAD TO GO A FARMING

Holk and Western to Establish Large Experiment Station.

INDUCE IMMIGRATION

See Thousands to Be Improved and Offered to Thrifty Immigrants.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RICHMOND, VA., March 31.—It is seen that the Norfolk and Western Railway Company is preparing to establish near Iver, on its line, in Southampton County, a big experimental farm, to under the joint management of practical and scientific farmers, for the cultivation of every fruit, vegetable and nut suitable to the soil and climate. The object of the extensive immigration is of the main purposes of the big farm, and three thousand acres of land going to the company in that section be utilized on most liberal terms as settlement for immigrants.

THE TIDEWATER.

Special Term of Court to Condemn Right of Way.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RICHMOND, VA., March 31.—The Honorable Judge called a special term of the Circuit Court for next Tuesday, for the report of the commissioners to condemnation proceedings for the water Railroad. The Tidewater road run through the entire length of the city, from the Campbell line, near the Patrick Henry estate, to the Prince and boundary, a distance of some 2.5 miles. Most of the land lies in Charlotte, through whose property the Tidewater will be built, agreed the railroad as to damages to be for the right of way on satisfaction.

YOUNG HEIFNER DEAD.

Is Distinguished by Having the Longest Name.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RICHMOND, VA., March 31.—The funeral of the remains of George K. G. M. P. W. S. J. D. Heifner, a bricklayer of this city, who died yesterday, was held yesterday afternoon in his residence in Plunkett street, near the Rev. A. D. R. Hancher, and minister was in Thorneville. Mr. Heifner was very prominent and his funeral largely attended.

THREE DROWNED.

Men Crossing in Boat, When It Was Overturned.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RICHMOND, VA., March 31.—Three men, employed in the construction of the Chesapeake extension of the Norfolk and Western Railway, were drowned yesterday afternoon in the western branch of Elizabeth. Seven of them were crossing the river in a small boat, returning work when one of their number, lying on the side of it, turned it over, of them saved themselves, but three names of the drowned men have been learned.

Grand New Hotel.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RICHMOND, VA., March 31.—A modern, fully finished, three-story, fireproof building, costing nearly $100,000, will be on Main and Randolph streets, adjoining the Atlantic Hotel and office building, at the corner of Main and Grand streets.

Funeral of Mr. James Lowe.

A funeral of Mr. James Lowe, who died Thursday at his residence, No. 3716 G Street, took place yesterday at 2 o'clock from the home. Interment was in Oakwood Cemetery. Mr. Lowe was seventy years old.

Funeral of Dr. E. T. Baker.

A funeral of Dr. Edmund T. Baker, who died at his home at 2 o'clock from the home, interment was in Oakwood Cemetery. Mr. Baker was seventy years old.

BY TEST HAS PROVEN BEST.

LIXIR BABEK

It All Forms of Malaria in All Stages, and Prevents It When Taken in Time.

A splendid spring tonic and blood purifier for young and old. Can be given to anyone with impunity. It cures all forms of malaria, fever, when taken before it has become chronic. It is a "something just as good" as any of the other drugs.

WHO SHE WAS

SKETCH OF THE LIFE OF LYDIA E. PINKHAM

And a True Story of How the Vegetable Compound Had Its Birth and How the "Panic of '73" Caused It to be Offered for Public Sale in Drug Stores.

Yours for Health Lydia E. Pinkham and investigating mind, an earnest seeker after knowledge, and above all, possessed of a wonderfully sympathetic nature.

In 1848 she married Isaac Pinkham, a builder and real estate operator, and their early married life was marked by prosperity and happiness. They had four children, three sons and a daughter.

In those good old fashioned days it was common for mothers to make their own home medicines from roots and herbs, nature's own remedies, calling in a physician only in specially urgent cases. By tradition and experience many of them gained a wonderful knowledge of the curative properties of the various roots and herbs.

Mrs. Pinkham took a great interest in the study of roots and herbs, their characteristics and power over disease. She maintained that just as nature so bountifully provides in the harvest fields and orchards vegetable foods of all kinds, so if we but take the pains to find them, in the roots and herbs of the field there are remedies expressly designed to cure the various ills and weaknesses of the body, and it was her pleasure to search these out, and prepare simple and effective medicines for her own family and friends.

Chief of these was a rare combination of the choicest medicinal roots and herbs found best adapted for the cure of the ills and weaknesses peculiar to the female sex, and Lydia E. Pinkham's friends and neighbors learned that her compound relieved and cured it and became quite popular among them.

All this she did so freely, without money and without price, as a labor of love.

But in 1873 the financial crisis struck Lynn. Its length and severity were too much for the large real estate interests of the Pinkham family, as this class of business suffered most from the depression, so when the Centennial year dawned it found their property swept away. Some other source of income had to be found.

At this point Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was made known to the world.

The three sons and the daughter, with their mother, combined forces to restore the family fortune. They argued that the medicine which was so good for their woman friends and neighbors was equally good for the women of the whole world.

The Pinkhams had no money, and little credit. Their first laboratory was the kitchen, where roots and herbs were steeped on the stove, gradually filling a gross of bottles. Then came the question of selling it, for always before they had given it away freely. They hired a job printer to run off some pamphlets setting forth the merits of the medicine, now called Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and these were distributed by the Pinkham sons in Boston, New York, and Brooklyn.

The wonderful curative properties of the medicine were, to a great extent, self-advertising, for whoever used it recommended it to others, and the demand gradually increased.

In 1877, by combined efforts the family had saved enough money to commence newspaper advertising and from that time the growth and success of the enterprise were assured, until today Lydia E. Pinkham and her Vegetable Compound have become household words everywhere, and many tons of roots and herbs are used annually in its manufacture.

Lydia E. Pinkham herself did not live to see the great success of this work. She passed to her reward years ago, but not till she had provided means for continuing her work as effectively as she could have done it herself.

During her long and eventful experience she was ever methodical in her work and she was always careful to preserve a record of every case that came to her attention. The case of every sick woman who applied to her for advice and there were thousands, some as careful study, and the details, including symptoms, treatment and results were recorded for future reference, and to-day these records, together with hundreds of thousands made since, are available to sick women the world over, and represent a vast collaboration of information regarding the treatment of woman's ills, which for authenticity and accuracy can hardly be equalled in any library in the world.

With Lydia E. Pinkham worked her daughter-in-law, the present Mrs. Pinkham. She was carefully instructed in all her hard-earned knowledge, and for years she assisted her in her vast correspondence.

To her hands naturally fell the direction of the work when its original passed away. For nearly twenty-five years she has continued it, and nothing in the work shows when the first Lydia E. Pinkham dropped her pen, and the present Mrs. Pinkham, now the mother of a large family, took up. With women assistants, some as capable as herself, the present Mrs. Pinkham continues this great work, and probably from the office of no other person have so many women been advised how to regain health. Sick women, this advice is "Yours for Health" freely given if you only write to ask for it.

Such is the history of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; made from simple roots and herbs; the one great medicine for women's ailments, and the fitting monument to the noble woman whose name it bears.

Mr. Pace and the dog were in court yesterday morning. The canine was held up to view and the court took a good squint.

"Looks like a bulldog. Maybe it's a terrier, but there are signs of a fighter there."

With women assistants, some as capable as herself, the present Mrs. Pinkham continues this great work, and probably from the office of no other person have so many women been advised how to regain health. Sick women, this advice is "Yours for Health" freely given if you only write to ask for it.

Such is the history of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; made from simple roots and herbs; the one great medicine for women's ailments, and the fitting monument to the noble woman whose name it bears.

Mr. Pace and the dog were in court yesterday morning. The canine was held up to view and the court took a good squint.

"Looks like a bulldog. Maybe it's a terrier, but there are signs of a fighter there."

With women assistants, some as capable as herself, the present Mrs. Pinkham continues this great work, and probably from the office of no other person have so many women been advised how to regain health. Sick women, this advice is "Yours for Health" freely given if you only write to ask for it.

Such is the history of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; made from simple roots and herbs; the one great medicine for women's ailments, and the fitting monument to the noble woman whose name it bears.

Mr. Pace and the dog were in court yesterday morning. The canine was held up to view and the court took a good squint.

"Looks like a bulldog. Maybe it's a terrier, but there are signs of a fighter there."

With women assistants, some as capable as herself, the present Mrs. Pinkham continues this great work, and probably from the office of no other person have so many women been advised how to regain health. Sick women, this advice is "Yours for Health" freely given if you only write to ask for it.

Such is the history of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; made from simple roots and herbs; the one great medicine for women's ailments, and the fitting monument to the noble woman whose name it bears.

Mr. Pace and the dog were in court yesterday morning. The canine was held up to view and the court took a good squint.

"Looks like a bulldog. Maybe it's a terrier, but there are signs of a fighter there."

ELECTORAL BOARD IN PETERSBURG

The Valley Farm Hunt Club Organizes and Elects Officers.

HONORS TO COLORED MAN

Board of Stewards of White Church Pall-Bearers to Colored Sexton.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., March 31.—The new electoral board, consisting of R. B. Wilcox, Jr., E. M. Marshall and R. W. Kruse, has organized, with Mr. Wilcox as chairman and Mr. Kruse as secretary. All registrars have been reappointed for a term of two years from May 1, 1906. The judges and clerks of election will be appointed at a later date. The registrars are as follows: First Ward, J. J. Nunn; Second Ward, Wilkes Madison; Third Ward, S. A. Gentry; Fourth Ward, John D. Ragland; Fifth Ward, A. J. Saunders; Sixth Ward, B. W. Matthews.

The Valley Farm Hunt Club elected the following officers at a meeting last night at the Petersburg Club: President, Dr. J. B. Jones; treasurer, J. M. Townsend; secretary, George W. Harrison. The club decided to double its membership, and appointed a committee to purchase the best horses obtainable for hunting next season. The members of the committee are Ashton W. Gray, J. P. W. Ruffin, Dr. J. B. Jones, Robert Thompson and Roscoe Ruffin.

The funeral of J. Randall Jordan, a highly respected colored man, who had been sexton of Market Street Methodist Church for forty years, brought forth an unusual tribute to his memory at the Union Church yesterday afternoon from his many white friends, among whom the former and present pastors of Market Street Church participated in the services. The members of the committee are Ashton W. Gray, J. P. W. Ruffin, Dr. J. B. Jones, Robert Thompson and Roscoe Ruffin.

NEW PASTOR TO-DAY.

People of Broadus Memorial Warmly Welcome Rev. Grace.

Rev. E. L. Grace, the new pastor of Broadus Memorial Baptist Church, will be welcomed by the congregation this morning. Mr. Grace will occupy the pulpit on both occasions.

The occasion will be notable for the church, which has been without a pastor ever since the resignation of Rev. Dr. Stealey given months ago. The pulpit has been occupied by various ministers from time to time, and the congregation is now glad to receive its regular pastor.

Mr. Grace arrived in Richmond on Friday. He will occupy the residence now the home of Rev. M. Ashby Jones, 2806 East Franklin Street.

Next Sunday afternoon will be held the "Ladies' Aid Society" will give a social in the lecture room.

DR. PORTER TO LEAD.

Grove Avenue Baptist Church Continues Revival This Week.

Rev. Dr. J. W. Porter, pastor of the First Baptist Church, of Newport News, has been engaged to conduct the revival services at Grove Avenue Baptist Church, which will continue here all this week.

The services will begin this morning. In the details of the plans for the rest of the week will be announced later. A special feature of the meetings will be the work of the large chorus choir, which will occupy a platform in the auditorium.

Dr. Porter is a preacher of great eloquence and power, attracting large crowds wherever he goes, and bringing about many conversions.

Dr. Riley's Last Talk to Men.

The meeting for men, under the auspices of the Central Young Men's Christian Association will be held in the auditorium of the First Baptist Church this afternoon. The doors will open at 3 o'clock, and the big song service begin at 3:15. Dr. Riley, who gave such a stirring and telling address last Sunday at the meeting, will be the speaker. His theme, "A Husband and Father Fit for His Office," Dr. Riley has had a large experience with men, and as a speaker is exceedingly attractive to them. Mr. Martin, the soloist, is a great favorite with men. This will be the last opportunity to hear these two workers in a men's meeting.

Mr. Green for Re-election.

Mr. Francis T. Green, senior member of the real estate firm of Green & Redd, now a member of the Common Council from Monroe Ward, will stand for re-election. Mr. Green succeeded Mr. James E. Cannon, who moved out of the ward, and from the date of qualification he has been a most useful member.

Mr. Barfoot Succeeds Mr. White.

Mr. Basil White has resigned his position in the box office of the Bijou Theatre, and is succeeded by Mr. Clarence Barfoot, a well known young man of the city. Mr. Barfoot will be the assistant of Treasurer Joe Adams, of the popular amusement place. Mr. Barfoot has been in the employ of the theatre for several years, and his many friends are glad that he has received a promotion.

Sent Chickens Far Away.

Mr. S. S. Stranburg, a few days ago shipped a pen of his leghorns to Ocean Springs, Miss., which is situated on the Gulf of Mexico, over 1000 miles from here.

SUBPOENAS ARE ISSUED FOR THE BIG PACKERS

Twelve of Them Cited to Appear in Court September Tenth Next.

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, March 31.—The government of the United States to-day, through District Attorney Morrison, caused the issue of twelve subpoenas for as many men, who are prominent in the packing industry. The subpoenas cite the men to appear at the trial of the packing corporations, which is set for September 30th.

As soon as issued, the subpoenas were given to deputy United States marshals for service. The men for whom subpoenas were issued are J. Gordon Armour, Arthur Meeker, C. W. Armour, P. A. Valentine, S. A. McRoberts, L. A. Carlton, Edward B. Swift, C. F. Swift, H. E. Hartwell, A. H. Veeder, Robert McManus, Arthur Evans.

J. B. Mosby & Co.

Richmond, Va., April, 1906.

Dear Madam:

We cordially invite you to a Special Demonstration at our store. We have secured the services of a New York Corsetiere who, skilled from long experience in fitting, can tell at a glance the corset best adapted to set off your figure, and bring out its most beautiful lines.

This expert corsetiere will be at our store commencing MONDAY, APRIL SECOND, for two weeks, to show the latest styles in corsets, and by a show every woman what model will most improve her type of figure—fitting her with it if she so desires.

La Marguerite and Kabo
Corset Demonstration,

These corsets are the embodiment of grace and comfort. Skillfully designed, they develop an erect, stylish, figure, with sweeping graceful lines in every wearer.

Every corset sold will be personally fitted on by this expert to insure its exact adaptation to the figure.

Very respectfully,
J. B. MOSBY & CO.

April Second to Fourteenth, Inclusive.

FIRST DEGREE MURDER FOR BEN WILLIAMS

Rev. E. D. Cameron to Lecture For Anti-Saloon League.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., March 31.—Verdict for murder in the first degree was returned this morning by the jury in the case against Ben Williams for shooting Alex. Edwards, H. H. Harris, Lewis Ginter, one of Richmond's greatest benefactors.

Many of the above distinguished men, who now rest in Hollywood, were not citizens of Richmond, but their bodies were brought here and placed in Hollywood because it was believed not only that its existence for all time as a cemetery was assured, but also that it would always be kept in its present beautiful and attractive condition.

And what shall we more say? For the time would find us to the distinguished lawyers and doctors of medicine and others who have been interred in this place, which has been made sacred by cherished and tender memories.

It appeared that when a committee of the Council of the city made its report to a joint session of the Committees on Grounds and Buildings and Finance, that Hollywood Cemetery Company had offered $25,000 for the Clark Spring property, and that Miss Arens had offered $20,000 (or $20,500) for the same property.

Thereupon the subcommittee appointed to report on the matter offered the following resolution:

"We, the committee, recommend the sale of the Clark Spring property to Miss Arens, if she will pay twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for said property."

Which was adopted. It seems from said resolution that, in the event Miss Arens increased her bid to $25,000, the joint committee recommends that the sale to her be closed at that price, without giving the Hollywood Cemetery Company a like opportunity to increase its bid. But these directors do not think that such a position could be properly taken by the City Council in disposing of the city's property.

These directors fully appreciate the good and noble work which Miss Arens is doing for the boys of this city, and feel that she deserves the commendation of the entire community; and they would not like even to appear to obstruct in any way the full development of her plans. But Hollywood's extension and active existence as a cemetery depend solely upon its acquiring the Clark Spring property; while the development of Miss Arens's plans is not dependent upon her acquiring that particular tract, as there are many other small tracts of unimproved land in the suburbs of the city, which could be utilized for her purposes. Moreover, it seems incongruous to have a playground for boys, no matter how well beloved they may be, more than half-way surrounded by a cemetery, while it is being daily used for the burial of the dead, and is constantly visited by members of bereaved families.

THE DIRECTORS OF HOLLYWOOD CEMETERY COMPANY.
Richmond, Va.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:

Sir,—I have appeared in your newspaper, impressing and educating the public mind with the idea that the Council of the city of Richmond should dispose of its Clark Spring property to Miss Arens; that it might become a playground for the boys, instead of selling that property to the Hollywood Cemetery Company, which is seeking to secure it as an indispensable addition to the grounds now held by it. We are of opinion that the gravity and importance of the right disposition of this property by the Council of the city of Richmond has not been understood, and we desire, through your paper, to correct some misconceptions which will remove erroneous impressions entertained about Hollywood Cemetery Company.

This company was chartered more than a half century ago, for the purpose of providing a cemetery for its lot-holders, who are the sole owners of the property held by the company, with no purpose whatever to secure any pecuniary benefit therefrom for said owners, the sole purpose being to apply all their capital to the betterment and improvement of the property itself. The expenses of maintaining and caring for its property, which are incurred in paying the laborers and for things necessary therefor, must be met; all else goes to the betterment of the property. Hollywood is in no sense a money-making corporation.

It emerged in 1865 from the effects of a distressing war, in a sad and poor condition, having, however, provided in the meantime a resting place for 15,000 Confederate soldiers, who sleep around the monument erected to their memory in the heart of Richmond. In the years following many persons were led to secure lots in this ideal place for their dead, which caused its directors to expend the accumulations from the sale of lots in the purchase of land lying adjacent to the lands then held; and it now appears that the lots remaining undisposed of will be sold in about ten years, which makes the purchase of additional lands absolutely necessary for the company.

With this condition facing the present directors, they offered the city of Richmond twenty-five thousand dollars for the Clark Spring property, which would be a delivery for its lot-holders, and which is the only available property that can be obtained for the cemetery, since Hollywood is held in by the river, the city of Richmond and is cemetery belonging to the city. It is therefore manifest that Clark Spring property is a "sine qua non" for Hollywood.

It is indispensable for its existence. Without an income, which must be derived from the sale of its lots, to maintain it, Hollywood will pass into decay and neglect, shrouded only about one-fourth of its lots have been provided with a fund for their perpetual care.

If the city of Richmond will sell the Clark Spring property to this cemetery company, it will be enabled to continue, as it has done during the last half century, to provide this "no man's city" with the most historic and famous cemetery

In all our Southern States, it is famous because of its great natural beauty and for the number of illustrious dead that lie within its boundaries: ex-President Jefferson Davis and members of his family; James Monroe and members of his family; John Tyler, and Generals Stuart, Pickett, Pegram, Fitz Lee, Edward Johnson, Stevens, Sam Jones, Chilton, Terry, Harry Heath, Joseph R. Anderson, Cook, Walker and others; Governors William Smith, Henry A. Wise, Charles T. O'Ferrall, Commodore M. F. Maury, John Randolph of Roanoke, John R. Thompson, poet; W. J. Hubbard and John Galt, sculptors; Doctors of Divinity W. B. Plummer, M. D. Hoge, J. B. Jeter, J. L. M. Curry, Bishops Moore, Whitely, Newton, Doggett, Drs. Parker, Duncan, Lansing, Bayless, Charles Munroe, Alex. Edwards, H. H. Harris, Lewis Ginter, one of Richmond's greatest benefactors.

Many of the above distinguished men, who now rest in Hollywood, were not citizens of Richmond, but their bodies were brought here and placed in Hollywood because it was believed not only that its existence for all time as a cemetery was assured, but also that it would always be kept in its present beautiful and attractive condition.

And what shall we more say? For the time would find us to the distinguished lawyers and doctors of medicine and others who have been interred in this place, which has been made sacred by cherished and tender memories.

It appeared that when a committee of the Council of the city made its report to a joint session of the Committees on Grounds and Buildings and Finance, that Hollywood Cemetery Company had offered $25,000 for the Clark Spring property, and that Miss Arens had offered $20,000 (or $20,500) for the same property.

Thereupon the subcommittee appointed to report on the matter offered the following resolution:

"We, the committee, recommend the sale of the Clark Spring property to Miss Arens, if she will pay twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for said property."

Which was adopted. It seems from said resolution that, in the event Miss Arens increased her bid to $25,000, the joint committee recommends that the sale to her be closed at that price, without giving the Hollywood Cemetery Company a like opportunity to increase its bid. But these directors do not think that such a position could be properly taken by the City Council in disposing of the city's property.

These directors fully appreciate the good and noble work which Miss Arens is doing for the boys of this city, and feel that she deserves the commendation of the entire community; and they would not like even to appear to obstruct in any way the full development of her plans. But Hollywood's extension and active existence as a cemetery depend solely upon its acquiring the Clark Spring property; while the development of Miss Arens's plans is not dependent upon her acquiring that particular tract, as there are many other small tracts of unimproved land in the suburbs of the city, which could be utilized for her purposes. Moreover, it seems incongruous to have a playground for boys, no matter how well beloved they may be, more than half-way surrounded by a cemetery, while it is being daily used for the burial of the dead, and is constantly visited by members of bereaved families.

THE DIRECTORS OF HOLLYWOOD CEMETERY COMPANY.
Richmond, Va.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:

Sir,—I have appeared in your newspaper, impressing and educating the public mind with the idea that the Council of the city of Richmond should dispose of its Clark Spring property to Miss Arens; that it might become a playground for the boys, instead of selling that property to the Hollywood Cemetery Company, which is seeking to secure it as an indispensable addition to the grounds now held by it. We are of opinion that the gravity and importance of the right disposition of this property by the Council of the city of Richmond has not been understood, and we desire, through your paper, to correct some misconceptions which will remove erroneous impressions entertained about Hollywood Cemetery Company.

This company was chartered more than a half century ago, for the purpose of providing a cemetery for its lot-holders, who are the sole owners of the property held by the company, with no purpose whatever to secure any pecuniary benefit therefrom for said owners, the sole purpose being to apply all their capital to the betterment and improvement of the property itself. The expenses of maintaining and caring for its property, which are incurred in paying the laborers and for things necessary therefor, must be met; all else goes to the betterment of the property. Hollywood is in no sense a money-making corporation.

It emerged in 1865 from the effects of a distressing war, in a sad and poor condition, having, however, provided in the meantime a resting place for 15,000 Confederate soldiers, who sleep around the monument erected to their memory in the heart of Richmond. In the years following many persons were led to secure lots in this ideal place for their dead, which caused its directors to expend the accumulations from the sale of lots in the purchase of land lying adjacent to the lands then held; and it now appears that the lots remaining undisposed of will be sold in about ten years, which makes the purchase of additional lands absolutely necessary for the company.

With this condition facing the present directors, they offered the city of Richmond twenty-five thousand dollars for the Clark Spring property, which would be a delivery for its lot-holders, and which is the only available property that can be obtained for the cemetery, since Hollywood is held in by the river, the city of Richmond and is cemetery belonging to the city. It is therefore manifest that Clark Spring property is a "sine qua non" for Hollywood.

It is indispensable for its existence. Without an income, which must be derived from the sale of its lots, to maintain it, Hollywood will pass into decay and neglect, shrouded only about one-fourth of its lots have been provided with a fund for their perpetual care.

If the city of Richmond will sell the Clark Spring property to this cemetery company, it will be enabled to continue, as it has done during the last half century, to provide this "no man's city" with the most historic and famous cemetery

In all our Southern States, it is famous because of its great natural beauty and for the number of illustrious dead that lie within its boundaries: ex-President Jefferson Davis and members of his family; James Monroe and members of his family; John Tyler, and Generals Stuart, Pickett, Pegram, Fitz Lee, Edward Johnson, Stevens, Sam Jones, Chilton, Terry, Harry Heath, Joseph R. Anderson, Cook, Walker and others; Governors William Smith, Henry A. Wise, Charles T. O'Ferrall, Commodore M. F. Maury, John Randolph of Roanoke, John R. Thompson, poet; W. J. Hubbard and John Galt, sculptors; Doctors of Divinity W. B. Plummer, M. D. Hoge, J. B. Jeter, J. L. M. Curry, Bishops Moore, Whitely, Newton, Doggett, Drs. Parker, Duncan, Lansing, Bayless, Charles Munroe, Alex. Edwards, H. H. Harris, Lewis Ginter, one of Richmond's greatest benefactors.

Many of the above distinguished men, who now rest in Hollywood, were not citizens of Richmond, but their bodies were brought here and placed in Hollywood because it was believed not only that its existence for all time as a cemetery was assured, but also that it would always be kept in its present beautiful and attractive condition.

And what shall we more say? For the time would find us to the distinguished lawyers and doctors of medicine and others who have been interred in this place, which has been made sacred by cherished and tender memories.

It appeared that when a committee of the Council of the city made its report to a joint session of the Committees on Grounds and Buildings and Finance, that Hollywood Cemetery Company had offered $25,000 for the Clark Spring property, and that Miss Arens had offered $20,000 (or $20,500) for the same property.

Thereupon the subcommittee appointed to report on the matter offered the following resolution:

"We, the committee, recommend the sale of the Clark Spring property to Miss Arens, if she will pay twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for said property."

Which was adopted. It seems from said resolution that, in the event Miss Arens increased her bid to $25,000, the joint committee recommends that the sale to her be closed at that price, without giving the Hollywood Cemetery Company a like opportunity to increase its bid. But these directors do not think that such a position could be properly taken by the City Council in disposing of the city's property.

These directors fully appreciate the good and noble work which Miss Arens is doing for the boys of this city, and feel that she deserves the commendation of the entire community; and they would not like even to appear to obstruct in any way the full development of her plans. But Hollywood's extension and active existence as a cemetery depend solely upon its acquiring the Clark Spring property; while the development of Miss Arens's plans is not dependent upon her acquiring that particular tract, as there are many other small tracts of unimproved land in the suburbs of the city, which could be utilized for her purposes. Moreover, it seems incongruous to have a playground for boys, no matter how well beloved they may be, more than half-way surrounded by a cemetery, while it is being daily used for the burial of the dead,